MEDITERRANEAN HOUSES

From the moment you cross the gate of this house, you get a sense of authenticity. For the people we know and love Jávea and its traditional architecture, this house is a gem. It preserves the distribution and constructive elements of a classic house of the Tosalet, which is synonymous with Mediterranean beauty.

The fact that it is located in a cul-de-sac provides extra quietness and tranquility and the spectacular views finish painting this beautiful picture that we now offer you.

The mature garden is a marvel for the senses and, because of its great extension, it has different corners where to lie down, sit, eat or just walk around feeling the fluffy grass under your feet.

To keep in mind: The property is in a private urbanization with security and services.
