For sale this country house in need of complete renovation. The original house is built on the boundaries so it should not be demolished in order to take advantage of the situation of the house on the plot. It has many possibilities, such as the construction of a large swimming pool between the house and the chill out or barbecue area. There is also enough space for the construction of a porch for two or three vehicles.

The location of the plot and the country house is unbeatable, as it is only a few minutes walking distance to the historic centre of Jávea. Ideal to build your permanent home and live in all year round. From the house itself you will have open views to the orchards and the historic centre.
