Wake up to the Mediterranean

Some homes have sea views.

At Casa Isola, the Mediterranean becomes part of everyday life.

Set in the highly sought-after Portitxol area of Jávea (Xàbia), this spectacular contemporary villa has been designed to capture one of the most iconic views on the Costa Blanca: Portitxol Island rising from the Mediterranean Sea.

It is a view that is hard to forget — and one you can even enjoy from the comfort of your bed.

With 420 m² built and 365 m² of living space on a 1,605 m² plot, Casa Isola combines elegant contemporary architecture, expansive glass walls and generous terraces oriented towards the sea. The design embraces natural light and creates a seamless connection between interior spaces and the Mediterranean landscape.

The main living area is bright, open and designed for modern Mediterranean living. Large panoramic windows frame the sea while connecting the interior with the outdoor terraces and pool, creating a fluid transition between indoor and outdoor spaces.
