Villa Lavender is a natural home, which will build is safeguarding the landscape and preserving the environment the most.

This project is unique in the Costa Blanca, for its uniqueness and boldness in the use of materials and ideas fresh and very Mediterranean.

Lavender found in fresh environments, wild and tranquil places, is a very beautiful plant, therefore, we have created this sustainable project.

As they say a picture it is worth more than a thousand words, so the exterior or the physical matter and Lavender Villa will not be less, will be much more than a nice house and with carefully chosen materials, it will be a well built from the start House.

With demanding and experienced architects in this type of housing will guarantee that this will not be one project studied the mm is a project unique in a unique environment.

We use Mediterranean materials combining the modern with
